CHAPTER XV.
In Search of Rest

June brought all the young people home again. It brought, also, a great deal of talk concerning plans for vacation. "Bessie-Elizabeth—said they must all go away."

From James Bialdell this brought a sudden and vigorous remonstrance. "Nonsense, you've just got home!" he exclaimed. "Hillerton'll be a vacation for you all right. Besides, I want my family together again. I haven't seen a thing of my children for six months."

Elizabeth gave a silver laugh. (Elizabeth had learned to give very silver laughs.) She shrugged her shoulders daintily and looked at her rings.

"Hillerton? He! You wouldn't really do us to Hillerton all summer, dady?"

"What's the matter with Hillerton?"

"What isn't the matter with Hillerton?" laughed the daughter again.

"But I thought we—we would have auto trips," stammered her mother apologetically. "Take them from here, you know, and stay overnight at hotels around. I've always wanted to do that; and we can now, dady."

"Auto trips? Foolish!" shrugged Elizabeth. "Why, mummy, we're going to the shore for July, and to the mountains for August. You and dady and I. And Fred's going, too, only he'll be at the Gaylord camp. In the Adirondacks, say, at the time?"

"Is that true, Fred?" James Bialdell's eye, fixed on his son, were half-wild, half-astounded.

Fred stirred restlessly.

"Well, I sort of had to, governor," he apologized. "I don't did. There are some things a man has to do. Gaylord asked me, and—Hunt it all, I don't see why you have to look at me as if I were committing a crime, dady."

"You aren't, dear, you aren't," fluttered Fred's mother hurriedly. "And I'm sure it's lovely you've got the chance to go to the Gaylords' camp. And it's right, quite right, that he should travel this summer, as Bessie—" —Elizabeth suggests. I never thought; but, of course, you young people don't like to be hived up in Hillerton all summer!"

Her young life we don't matter, shrugged Fred, carefully avoiding his father's eyes, "after all that grind."

"Grind, Fred?"

But Fred had turned away, and did not, apparently, hear his father's grievous question.

Mr. Smith learned all about the vacation plans a day or two later from Benny.

Backache

Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes and overlook the derangement of the kidneys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief.

This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven so effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use.

Mr. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good results. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am completely relieved."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

"Flo, you didn't take any of that Benson gold-mina stock!" interrupted Miss Maggie sharply.

Mr. Smith's hammer stopped, suspended in mid-air.

"No; oh, no! I asked Mr. Chalmers and he said better not. So I didn't." Miss Maggie relaxed in her chair, and Mr. Smith's hammer fell with a gentle tap on the nail-head.

"But I felt he had about it—when Miss Benson had been so kind as to offer it, you know. It looked sort of ungrateful."

"Ungrateful!" Miss Maggie's voice vibrated with indignant scorn. "Flo, you want to get me to dress your money without asking Mr. Chalmers' advice first, will you?"

"But I tell you I didn't," retorted Miss Flo, with unusual sharpness for her. "But it was good stock, and it pays splendidly. Jane took some. She took a lot."

"Jane!—but I thought Frank would let her's take some!"

"Oh, Frank, said all right, if she wanted to, she might. I suspect he's tired of her teasing. It did pay splendidly. Why, (will pay twenty-five per cent, probably, this year, Mr. Benson says.) So Frank gave in. You see, he felt he'd got to pacify Jane some way, I s'pose, she's so cut up about his selling out."

"Selling out!" exclaimed Miss Maggie. "Oh, didn't you know that? Well, then I have got some news!"

Miss Flo gave the satisfied little wriggle which a born news-wrecker always prefaces her choicest bit of information. "Frank has sold his grocery store—both of 'em."

"Why, I can't believe it!" Miss Maggie fell back with a puzzled frown.

"Sold them? Why, I should as soon think of his—his selling himself," cried Mr. Smith. "I thought they were inseparable."

"Well, they ain't—because he's separated 'em. Miss Flo was rocking a little faster now."

"But why?" demanded Miss Maggie. "He says he wants a real."

"He's worked hard all his life, and it's time he took some comfort. He says he doesn't take a minute of comfort now, 'cause Jane's bounding him all the time to get more money, to get more money. She's crazy to see the best of him, you know—Jane is."

But he says he don't want any more money. He wants to go to spend it. He's going to retire from business."

"Well," ejaculated Mr. Smith, "this is a piece of news, indeed!"

"I should say so!" cried Miss Maggie, still almost incredulous. "How does Jane take it?"

"Oh, she's terribly fussed up over it, as you'd know she would be. Such a good chance wasted; she thinks, when he might be making all that money earn more."

You know Jane wants to turn everything into money now. Honestly, Maggie, I don't believe Jane can look at the moon nowadays without wishing it was really gold, and she had it to put it out to interest!"

"Oh, Flo!" remonstrated Miss Maggie faintly.

"Well, it's so," maintained Miss Flo. "So it isn't any wonder, of course, that she's upset over this. That's why Frank gave in to her, and let her buy that Benson stock."

But, he's feeling, especially flush, because he's got the cash the stores rocking, too. So he told her to go ahead."

"I'm sorry about that stock," frowned Mr. Smith.

"Oh, it's perfectly safe. Miss Benson said 'was,' comforted Miss Flo. You needn't worry about that. And it will pay splendidly."

"When did this happen—the sale of the store, I mean?" asked Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith was not even pretending to work now.

Fresh Air Counts

Good Walk Better Than Any Amount of Medicine

There is no better tonic in the wide, wide world than a good walk in the open air. If your work keeps you inside most of the day, get up a little earlier and walk to work. It will make you feel better, make you better able to do your work.

As an old hunter once said, "The good Lord must have wanted everybody to get lots of fresh air and sunshine, that's why He made so much of it."

When you walk, walk briskly, breathe deeply. You will find that it beats any amount of medicine, and it doesn't cost a cent.

When you play, play hard; when you work don't play at all.—Theodore Roosevelt.

A Spring Commandment

In a big elementary school a teacher had given a lesson in art infants' class on the Ten Commandments. In order to test their memories she asked: "Can any little child give me a Commandment with only four words in it?"

A hand was raised immediately. "You may answer, John," said the teacher.

"Keep off the grass," was the reply. It pays to patronize home industry. Buy from the merchants in your own town.

"YOUR TEETH"

DEAD NERVES

By REA PROCTOR MOORE,
D.D.S., M.D., Editor of "Oral Hygiene"

We don't really mean dead nerves when we say it—what we do mean is a tooth pulp that has had its circulation stopped. A pulp is a little soft connective tissue with blood vessels and nerve fibres that is found inside the tooth and is necessary to the life of the tooth.

The pulps are very sensitive and delicate. If they are exposed they die; in fact, they die sometimes when they are not exposed. Those that die without actual exposure have been irritated by tooth decay or improper use, or injury, so that the pulp swells inside the bony case and chokes itself.

The tooth pulp could stand much more irritation if it had room to swell, but in its little canal inside the tooth there is no room. As soon as the pulp is irritated enough to swell over so little, the pressure stops the incoming of the arterial blood and then the circulation stops and decomposition begins.

It is very unfortunate to have the pulp in a tooth die.

It is true that many times the dead pulp is successfully removed and the canal artificially filled so that the tooth remains useful for a long period, but many pulpless teeth absorb. The cleansing and filling of a tooth canal is a very difficult and skilful operation. Why not take such good care of the teeth and mouth that you will not take chances on having infection from abscessed teeth?

By keeping the teeth clean and having small cavities filled at once the long, tedious and sometimes painful operation can be avoided. Sound teeth in good position and with live healthy nerves do not give trouble; they do their work willingly.

Deer Visits City of Scranton

A full grown antlered deer bolted through Scranton, Pa., streets leaving a trail of shattered windows and scattered provisions at its heels. The animal came from no one knows where, and has apparently returned to the same place. In its flight through the city the deer jumped through a large plate-glass window in a grocery store, scattering provisions right and left and making its exit through a door in the rear. When last seen it was heading toward the mountains.

The Next Best Thing

"Willie, where did you get that black eye?"

"Johnny Smith hit me."

"I hope you remember what your Sunday school teacher said about heaping coals on the head of your enemies."

"Well, ma, I didn't have any coal, so I just stuck his head in the ash barrel."—Boston Transcript.

Theo. Baker Says It Beats Anything He's Ever Seen In His Life

"The way Tanlac has helped me is one of the greatest surprises of my life," said Theo. L. Baker, 405 Qu'Appelle Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

"My health was bad for two years. I had a terrible case of stomach trouble and could hardly eat and digest anything. My food hurt me so bad I often thought I just could not stand it, and nearly all the time I was in misery and distress on account of gas on my stomach which bloated me up tight as a drum. I was nervous and restless at night, and always seemed to be tired and worn out. "Well, I was getting pretty weak when I got Tanlac, but it wasn't long until I was feeling better. Six bottles of Tanlac have made me feel like a brand new man. My stomach is in the best of shape, nothing I eat hurts me and I've gained several pounds in weight. All my lost strength has returned, I sleep like a log and feel good all the time. Tanlac is certainly the best medicine I ever saw or heard of."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

A MORAL AND FINANCIAL PIZZLE

As we see it, the famous prohibition law order of the Treasury Department is the first real crack in the foundations of this country's ridiculous prohibition structure. Cowardly politicians everywhere are beginning to shyly attack the law in response to public pressure and newspapers the states around are rebelling the banking opinion that the whole business is a farce, prohibiting nothing but good liquor, creating an army of criminals drinking more bad liquor and denying this country revenue that it badly needs. Neighboring countries are profiting enormously at the expense of both our pockets and our stomachs, and the whole world laughs at us.

We may not live long enough to see it, but we are convinced that sane regulation of the liquor traffic will eventually supersede present absurd conditions. It is well to look around us and consider what the present national course means. For instance, our neighbor, British Columbia, has taken over the liquor traffic and after several months' operation is in a position to give the world some facts. While there has been some suspicion of graft, as there inevitably always must be, the operation of the act has on the whole been extremely satisfactory. There is little or no evidence of intoxication in public places, except possibly as supplied by visitors from this side of the international line; the vending stores are as respectable as bank or church; good liquor is dispensed and infraction of regulations is severely dealt with.

In Nelson, well known to thousands of Spokane folks, it is said that daily sales amount to around $1,000, supplying a district of perhaps 6,000 population. If government regulation were in effect in Spokane and sales ran at the same level, the annual income from that source would run well over seven million dollars, assuming that the territory to be served would be approximately 20 times greater. But, as a matter of fact, sales would in all human probability largely exceed those of Nelson, for the same reason that local stocks are at a minimum, while in Nelson importation of liquor has remained legal even under prohibition. High prices are exacted in the province and it is believed that approximately one-half of the entire amount taken in goes to the government, which then divides with each community. With such an arrangement in effect here, the state would receive an annual contribution of three and a half million dollars from Spokane alone and the city would benefit to the extent of, say, a million and a half as a very agreeable offset to excessive taxation now driving business of all kinds away.

Consideration of these figures will give some idea of the tremendous financial loss this country is suffering. Of course the prohibitionist money is tainted. Perhaps so, but will take the position that liquor money is tainted. Perhaps so, but just the same the United States has not stopped buying liquor and is spending enormous sums for inferior goods unloaded by other countries not so squeamish. Meanwhile, we get not a dollar of revenue and spend millions in a campaign that makes criminals of good men, incites graft in officialdom and is doomed to failure if human nature remains as it is. We are not afraid to say that prohibition is a rank moral and financial failure and neither are we afraid to say that when all the isms of cranks and fanatics have been tried out, it will be found that dispensation of liquor by the high-license, regulated saloon is the only feasible alternative, that had liquor and its worse effects may not be driven into secret places and the homes. Northwest Mining Truth.

THE RURAL PRESS

If a town were to check up its assets, chief among them would be its newspaper. It is the one valuable common possession. It matters not so much (any) as the Grain Growers' Guide) who owns the stock of the publishing company or who occupies the editorial chair, so long as the people recognize it as a public institution and have due appreciation of what it can mean to them. In a very real sense a town and its people may be judged by the kind and quality of the paper that is published in their centre. If it is a live, energetic, foresighted publication, the town will be progressive and live. If the paper is lifeless, dry and without forward purpose, apart from selling subscriptions and advertising space, there will be little or no progress and community spirit manifest.

No matter how eminent city papers may be, they can never take the place of the country weekly. There is a personality and a flavor about the home town paper which cannot be furnished by any other publication on earth. To the people of the district it is a guide, philosopher and friend, and to those living away from the old home centre, its coming is welcomed like a message from an absent friend.

It is the merchant's means of communicating with his customers. It is equally the buyer's shopping place. The honesty of present day advertising commands itself to the public, and the home paper is becoming more and more the medium through which the purposes of legitimate advertising are made known. The time is close at hand when, instead of the publisher having to solicit the merchant for advertising, advertising space will be sought for by the merchants as the one economic and practical means of reaching his buyer public.

For the most part the country papers have done a real service in fighting a bad case—the community they serve. They see that the interests of the small town and of the farm are linked up together, and for the most part they have been a main support of the Modern Movement to give the common people a larger voice in the affairs of the nation. Despite the many and measuring difficulties under which the country publisher has had to work during recent years we would like to see more of them conduct an editorial column or corners where they could express their opinions on public questions. Some of the country papers have excellent editorial columns, and it is really too bad that all of them do not feature this side of their paper. The rural editor is nearer to the constituency and is better able to summarize and express the opinions of his readers than is any other writer.

The rural newspaper is the intimate friend of every citizen; it knows everybody. It praises the good, censures the evil, and stands solidly for the progress and betterment of the community. It can do more than any one single agency to bring any unity and advancement to the district. The live newspaper supplies effective leadership to every industrial, social and moral movement. It makes for that accomplishment without which a town is inactive and dormant.

The local curling rink opened up on Monday night with a game between the president and vice-president. The vice-president came out victorious and elected to be catered to with an oyster supper. A large number of very interested spectators were present and very much enjoyed the amateur efforts of some of the players. The Italian destroyer Centaure went down in a storm in the Mediterranean Sea.

The result of Tuesday's federal election was not a surprise to those who have been studying conditions during the past two or three years. The sweep for the Liberals in Eastern Canada was almost complete, while the Progressives in the prairie provinces seemed to have saved the country from a general swamp. In this riding Cooté, the Progressive candidate won hands down in one of the cleanest campaigns ever conducted in the riding. The same must be said of all his opponents, for not in the history of politics in Western Canada has there been less mud-slinging than in the recent campaign. Mr. Gillis, the Liberal standard-bearer, is taking his defeat as a defeated candidate should, and we trust that Mr. Fairhurst and Mr. Shaw will realize by now that the chances were all against them in Macleod riding as in all ridings west of the Great Lakes that were contested by the well-organized Progressives. We now take pleasure in congratulating Mr. Cooté on his success and trust that he will not walk too closely in the footsteps of his recent predecessors.

REVISION OF MINING LAWS

According to arrangements tentatively perfected, the Arentz bill now before Congress, embodying changes in mining laws as recommended by the committee which has been at work upon the matter for over four years, will be the subject of discussion at a convention to be held during the annual meeting of Columbia Section of A.I.M. & M.E. to be held late this month. The latter organization will have charge of the arrangements and will be joined by Washington Metal Mining Association, Idaho Mining Association and Mining Committee of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce. Also join in the discussion. Upon the result of the convention will be based resolutions to be forwarded to Washington as expressive of the opinion of mining interests of the Northwest—Northwest Mining Truth.

CONCERT A HUGE SUCCESS

The concert given in the opera house on Thursday night last in aid of the Catholic church by local talent was a success beyond all expectations and the ladies in charge, principally Mrs. L. Morgan, and Miss Marquis, deserve great credit for the manner in which the children were able to handle their respective parts. Mr. Ross as stage manager was par excellence and not a hitch occurred to mar the programme. The programme was rather lengthy and consisted of songs, vocal and instrumental solos, duets, etc.; a duologue, a display by junior girls and a sketch entitled "Poisoned Milk," in which the marriage of Mr. George Ross to Miss Christie McLellan was the important feature.

The most beautiful item on the program was the tableaux "Manumit," in which nations were represented as follows: "Britannia," Mrs. F. J. Smith; "France," Mrs. L. Morgan; "Italy," Mrs. A. S. Oliva; "Canada," Miss Kathleen Tompkins; "U.S.A.," Miss E. Picard; "Japan," Miss M. Mancini; "China," Miss K. Gibeau; "Ireland," Miss Thibodeau; "Scotland," Miss Edna Cross; "The Army," Mr. H. Pinkney; "The Navy," Mr. W. Dutil. Mr. H. C. James acted as accompanist, while A. Oliva filled the chair.

So pleased were visitors from other towns with the programme, that several invitations have been received to repeat it, and as we go to press we learn that the troupe will journey to Coleman on Friday night of next week, and probably to Bellevue or Hillcrest on the following week.

The opera house was filled to stand-room on Thursday night, and everyone are loud in their praise of the efforts of local talent.

Besides the children, those taking part included: Mesdames A. S. Oliva, F. J. Smith, L. Morgan; Messrs. J. R. Smith, J. Foster, H. C. James, George Ross, James Amatto, W. Moser, M. Cassina, A. Oliva, C. Howe and H. Pinkney.

Notices of the last two sixty-four assignments to creditors under the Bankruptcy Act are contained in the last issue of the Canadian Gazette.

T. Madden, C. N. Cyr, P. N. Potapoff, E. Groves and J. F. Smith of Lundbreck; and H. D. MacMillan, B. O. Morrow, and H. Franz, of Cowley, were in town yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. O. F. Sedgwick.

A Time For Courage

There is no disguising the fact that conditions throughout the Western Provinces of Canada are not, at the present time, very encouraging and many people are faced with a difficult winter and some hardship. In this respect the Canadian Prairie Provinces are not so very different from other parts of the Dominion and other countries throughout the world. There is, however, no real reason why the people of the West should lose heart and indulge in the ruin pessimistic talk. Such an attitude will not help, but will rather operate to further hinder a return to better times and conditions.

Present conditions in the West are bound to be of a temporary character and no country in the world is capable of more rapid recovery than the Canadian Prairie West. One misfortune and untoward occurrence after another have with agricultural production and marketing this year, and while it may be hard for many families to maintain themselves this winter, their condition will be no worse, and in the vast majority of cases very much better, than the early pioneers of this country and of Ontario and the Western States had to bear. Yet these earlier pioneers held on, revealing a determination and courage which in due course brought its reward, and thousands of them are today enjoying wealth or a secure and comfortable livelihood. Yet they experienced harder and apparently more hopeless conditions than those with which the people of today are confronted.

The next few months call for the exercise of certain qualities by all people. First and foremost, there must be individual courage, determination and energy; the putting forth of every possible effort to meet and overcome adverse conditions; an insistent turning away from the dark side of the picture and a constant hunt for the silver lining and contemplation of all the brighter and more hopeful features of the situation. Secondly, there is need for the development of a spirit of helpfulness, even to the extent of personal sacrifice, in order that the more fortunately placed ones will rally to the assistance of the less fortunate. In a word, these more difficult times should develop a strong community spirit of helpfulness and co-operation.

While nobody ever welcomes adversity, it must be remembered that it is in that hard school that really strong men and women are developed. When everything in life moves smoothly, without any great difficulty or obstacle in the way, the individual becomes soft, loses initiative, becomes weak and lacking in character. It is the struggle to overcome, to achieve, to win, that makes real men and creates strong characters. The man who, overwhelmed by adversity, lies down, is a failure and would ultimately prove a failure even under normal and less trying conditions. But the man who while in the man who can smile when everything goes dead wrong. And he is the man who will triumph in the end, and in the more successful and brighter days to come will look back with grim satisfaction and a deep joy to the dark days in which he struggled, and achieved, and won not only worldly success, but strength of character to meet whatever life might bring him.

Governor-General Given Degree

Lord Byng Honored by University at Toronto

The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Lord Byng, governor-general of Canada, by the University of Toronto. Following the ceremony, Lord Byng expressed appreciation of the honor and said that in the universities of Canada more than in any other place were to be found all that was best and most inspiring in the rising generation.

Civilization and modern social needs, Lord Byng said, had advanced past the time when force and a strong arm were all that was required of a man. He emphasized the importance of science and declared he believed the present horrors of war were due quite as much from the disappearance of the hero who was in control as from any other cause.

Miller's Worm Powders, being in demand everywhere, can be got at any chemist's or drug shop, at very small cost. They are a reliable remedy for worm troubles and can be fully relied upon to expel worms from the system and abate the sufferings that worms cause. There are many mothers that rejoice that they found available so effective a remedy for the relief of their children.

Tee Walking Develops Strength
Walking on the heel is the attitude of civilized man alone. The people of the woods, who are much superior in their muscle development, all walk on the toe, as do the lower animals. Taking this suggestion, a French doctor is prescribing a course of tee walking for patients who are deficient in chest development.

Money Not Saved

Figures Show That Americans Do Not Hoard Money
A Washington statistician reports that as against $118,000,000 the country spent for the army $750,000,000 has gone on candy and chewing gum. Sweets and the discontent with military expenditures, does it not? And $324,000,000 for soda and other soft drinks and $359,000,000 for perfume, jewelry, silk stockings and kindred luxuries. And the pin money pleasantly expended on theatres, concerts and baseball was $897,000,000. And, above all, the tribute to My Lady Nicotine cost her devotees $1,151,000,000!

Doubtless these figures tend to show something, one knows not what. They certainly show that Americans are not excessive hoarders and ought to bring a little more sense of proportion to indignant taxpayers. It is not fair to assume that people are unduly self-indulgent. Yet it does make one dizzy to think of a billion gone up in smoke—not the smoke of the battlefields, however—New York Tribune.

Canadian National Giving Reduced Rates For Home Visitors

As the Christmas Holiday Season approaches many people in the West look forward to spending some time with relatives and friends in the East. Taking this into consideration, the Canadian National Railways have made arrangements to issue tickets at greatly reduced rates from stations in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Winnipeg West in Manitoba, to any point in Eastern Canada. These tickets will be sold from December 31, 1921, to January 15th, 1922, and are good for return within three months from date of issue. Any Canadian National Railway Agent will be glad to supply further information, and, if you desire, will assist in planning your trip.

THE CAUSE OF BACKACHE

Only in Rare Cases Does Backache Mean Kidney Trouble

Every muscle in the body needs constantly a supply of rich red blood in proportion to the work it does. The muscles of the back are under a heavy strain and have but little rest. When the blood is thin they lack nourishment, but the best medical authorities agree that backache seldom or never has anything to do with the kidneys. Organic kidney disease may have progressed to a point without developing a pain in the back. This is the case, pain in the back should always lead the sufferer to look to the condition of his blood. It will be found in most cases that the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood will stop the sensation of pain in the ill-nourished muscles of the back. How much better it is to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills than to give way to unreasonable alarm about your kidneys. If you suspect your kidneys, you should make tests in ten minutes that will tell your fears at rest, or tell you the worst. But in any event to perfectly healthy you must keep the blood in good condition, and for this purpose no other medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Druggery In The Home

BY LORETTA C. LYNCH
An Acknowledged Expert In All Matters Pertaining to Household Management.

"By the time I took three times a day, do the cleaning and the laundry work and dress the children for school and change them when they come home, I'm so tired that I do not want to do anything but fall into bed. I cannot afford a maid, nor even a helper once a week; but life does not look good to me any more, and I am eager for some practical, not theoretical, suggestion."

Oh, hand, I think you cook too often. Not to mention the fact that no child old enough to go to school should be dressed by anyone save himself. It takes patience to teach a child to dress, but it is time well spent. Get rid of things that require much cleaning. Either send your washing to a commercial rough dry laundry, or if there are many everywhere doing excellent work at reasonable prices, or if you must do it yourself, invest in a washing machine and mangle.

To reduce time and effort spent in cooking, you may plan your meals on paper. Since you want something very definite, suppose you look carefully at this plan for three days.

Saturday
Breakfast—Salted oranges, oatmeal, milk, toast, butter, coffee or cocoa.

Luncheon—Cream of potato soup, bread and butter, baked apple, tea.

Dinner—Roast lamb, baked potatoes on half shell, creamed carrots, cold salad, cake, coffee.

Sunday
Breakfast—Baked apples, top milk, ready-to-eat cereal, toast and butter, coffee.

Luncheon—Vegetable soup, roast lamb, mashed potatoes, canned peas, fruit gelatine, coffee.

Supper—Cold sliced lamb, pickles, potato salad, cut cake, canned fruit, tea.

The meals will be left over from both Saturday and Sunday.

When cooking the oatmeal cook enough to serve on Saturday morning and again on Monday morning. When cooking plan to use the oven to capacity. Bake enough apples to serve at noon Saturday and at breakfast Sunday morning. Bake potatoes and have Hamburg roast and the lamb in at the same time. In preparing potatoes for the oven, boil enough to be made into mashed potatoes for Sunday dinner and salad for Sunday evening. Make enough cake to serve two days. Cut it in half. Serve the cakeiced one day and the other half plain on the second day.

The baked potatoes should be cut in half lengthwise and allowed to cool. The white part should be scooped out with a spoon, mixed with butter, chopped parsley and sufficient milk to moisten, as well as salt and pepper, and then packed lightly back into half the number of shells, to be reheated when the lamb is put back into the oven on Sunday morning for its last twenty minutes of roasting.

Thus, by cooking for two hours or so on Saturday morning, you accomplish, by planning, the preparing of sufficient food for six or seven meals. Soup may be made on Saturday, cooled and chilled in the refrigerator, to be reheated in a moment on Sunday. And who does not want a Sunday off to go to church or out for a walk or for a party?

For trying planning and looking less often. You will be surprised how much free time this plan gives you.

The ease with which corns and warts can be removed by Holloway's Corn Remover is its strongest recommendation. It seldom fails.

Creation Of Prairie Provinces

Organization First Started After Riot • Rebellion In 1870

When Riel's first rebellion was put down in the latter part of the summer of 1870 and the government of the new Province of Manitoba organized, Fort Garry was made the provincial capital and the place was given the name, Winnipeg.

After the creation of the Province of Manitoba, the prairie country beyond was known as the North-West Territories to which in time a limited form of self-government was granted, and the seat of government was established at Regina, the name being the Latin form of the word queen.

In 1905 the southern part of the Territories was erected into two provinces. Regina became the capital of Saskatchewan, and Edmonton the capital of Alberta. Edmonton had long existed as a trading post. Today the new North-West lies beyond Edmonton.

Edinburgh probate court has given leave to the heirs of Dr. McKay, a member of Stefansson's Canadian Arctic expedition party, to presume that the doctor is dead. McKinley, a member of the scientific staff of Stefansson's party, testified before the probate court that when the vessel was crushed by pack ice north of Herald Island, the party separated into two bodies and started for the land.

Dr. McKay's section was seen on February 16, 1914, bound for Wrangel Island, witnesses stated, and no further news of the members had been received. Undoubtedly, he said, they had perished in the storm.

French Newspapers Greatly Disturbed Over Proposed Moratorium

London.—Dr. Walter Rathenau, the former German minister of reconstruction, who is here in connection with German reparations, continued private conferences with officials and bankers. Thus far the public has been obliged to be content with speculation over the form the help for Germany, which is under discussion, will take, while French newspapers apparently are great disturbed that such negotiations are proceeding between Britain and Germany's semi-official representative, with France outside the secrets of the council.

Sir John Bradbury, the British member of the reparations commission, has issued a denial in Paris that he recommended a moratorium to the British Government. That, however, in no wise excludes the possibility of a moratorium being considered.

Reports in the French press credit Dr. Rathenau with trying to raise a British loan to float Germany, over the payment of the January instalment of the reparations account.

MILLIONS BEING ASKED FOR ILLEGAL ACTS TO CANADIANS BY GERMANS

Ottawa.—Already 659 claims, aggregating $22,494,979 have been filed with Major H. Spencer Relf, of the department of the secretary of state for reparation for illegal acts of warfare committed on Canadians and Canadian property by Germany and her allies during the war. It is anticipated that many additional claims will be made and that their total will run into many millions of dollars.

Sir Douglas Hazen, who has been appointed to investigate these claims, will decide the amounts the claimants are to receive. The claims, after investigation, will be paid from Canada's share of the indemnity secured by Great Britain from Germany on this account.

Canada will receive 43.5 of Great Britain's 42 per cent. of the total reparation assessed against Germany by the Allied nations.

Perhaps the most peculiar claims are those of Armenian residents in Canada for losses alleged to have been suffered by them as a result of the Turkish atrocities in Armenia. There are 91 of these claims, totalling $1,167,168.

The department has received 119 claims for ships, cargoes and merchandise lost at sea. These claims total $16,958,379. There are 68 claims totalling $1,154,451 based on passengers losing their lives at sea, and 194 claims totalling $239,566 for the loss of personal effects of passengers.

All persons who have already filed their claims are being asked to amplify their claims on forms provided for the purpose. The proof must be returned to the reparation commissioner, department of the secretary of state, at an early date as possible. It is believed that a large number of claims have not been submitted, and general public notice is being given that unless claims are made immediately they will not receive attention.

Russia Will Ask Help From Britain

Want Moratorium If Germany Is Granted This Right
London.—Leonid Krassin, the Bolshevik minister of trade and commerce, is to take up with Mr. Lloyd George the question of Russia's debt and commercial revival. It is learnt that in Russian official circles there is a probability of M. Krassin's suggesting a moratorium regarding Russia. If such a measure of relief is granted to Germany.

M. Krassin and M. Litvinoff probably will proceed to Washington before the conference ends in order to enlist United States interest in the debt question.

U.S. Destroyer Aground
San Francisco, Cal.—The United States destroyer Delong, en route from San Diego, struck a rock and was aground at a point about ten miles south of the entrance to San Francisco harbor, according to wireless messages received here. The vessel and crew were reported not to be in immediate danger.

Sell Wheat To India
London.—Reuters's correspondent in Melbourne reports that Australian Wheat Board has sold a large quantity of the current season's wheat to India at 61 pence per bushel.

To Honor Foch
Montreal.—The University of Montreal has decided to offer the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws to Marshal Foch on the occasion of his visit here.

Britain's Safest Policy Is Making Investments Within The Empire

London.—Winston Spencer Churchill, colonial secretary, in a speech in London, said that if Great Britain was able only to look to the east and the west her position would be unhappy, but in the great dominions she had outlets for her energy with objects deserving financial support, and with great potentialities for development.

Before British investors cast money upon strange shores let them, he said, be quite sure there was not in the British Empire a more certain means of securing swift and certain returns. In future they would need to draw more from imperial resources and as the years passed this process would conduce to the greater strengthening of the British position. They were well advised to repose themselves confidently on the board security of the Empire. If that failed there would be little use in any part of the world. If it stood, the money invested in the great overseas dominions would return bringing with it means for future enterprise. If they had patience, courage and wisdom, the dark days would pass and they would live to see the dawn of another era as splendid, peaceful and prosperous as that in which their fathers and grandfathers were fortunate enough to live.

Millions Damage In New England Storm

Difficulties of Electric and Telephone Companies Unprecedented
Boston, Mass.—Under the first onslaught in four days, New England began to thaw out and to slough the icy burden left by successive storms.

The shedding process laid bare the damage, running into millions of dollars. In the case of the electric and telephone companies, it was announced their difficulties were unprecedented.

Teachers Resent Treatment

Many Canadians Receiving Minimum Allowance in English Schools
London, Ont.—Formal complaint regarding the treatment accorded Canadian teachers in England has been made to the Department of Education in Toronto, according to a letter received here from one of the teachers now in London, England. Many of the 17 teachers are receiving but the minimum allowance of approximately $75 per month, while one former principal of a large Toronto school is declared to be teaching kindergarten classes.

Cannot Visit Canada
Kitchener, Ont.—Mayor Grib received a letter from Premier Lloyd George stating that if he crossed the ocean he would be unable, owing to time, to make any visit to Canada or in the States.

By making your purchases from your home merchant you are contributing directly to the prosperity of the community in which you live.

Many Wheat Awards Go to Canadians

Ottawa.—S. L. Newman, secretary of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, reports to the Department of Agriculture that members of the association have won 22 out of 25 prizes in wheat; the first nine, and in all, twenty prizes in oats; first and third prizes in alfalfa seed, and second and third prizes in flint corn at the Chicago International Exhibition. Despite the unfavorable crop year in Canada, the record for the Canadian Seed Growers' Association surpasses winnings of former years.

Russian Rouble Drops in Value

Dollar Has Taken Jump From 150,000 to 200,000

Moscow.—The Russian rouble is still depreciating. It now requires 200,000 of them to purchase a dollar. In one day the dollar has jumped from 150,000 roubles to 200,000 roubles, which is the most violent fluctuation since the free trade policy was inaugurated. It is attributed to the scramble of possessors of large quantities of roubles to obtain foreign money at any price, accelerated by a recent paper for the issuance of a new paper money on December 1. Under the new form of printing the present high numbers will be eliminated, the notes returning to the one rouble unit which is worth 10,000 of the present notes.

By the new plan Russia's millions of millionaires will be painlessly reduced to a lower financial class.

Berlin Workers On Strike

Men in Electrical Department Demand Wage Increase
Berlin.—Berlin was suddenly thrown into darkness and was without telephones or street cars owing to a strike of the city electrical workers because of a refusal of their demand for a substantial increase in wages. Negotiations for a settlement of the wage question were actually in progress when the men walked out, leaving loaded cars in the streets and abruptly cutting off telephone conversations. The underground trains were taken only to stations which were convenient to the workers. Less than half of the evening newspapers made their appearance.

Steamer Makes Official Trip
Victoria.—The new C.P.R. steamer, Princess Louise, built by the Wallace Shipyard, North Vancouver, has made her official trip.

The speed requirements of 16 knots called for by the contract stipulations, were more than satisfied at all stages. On three trials the vessel averaged 16.2, 16.9 and 17 knots.

Rescue Crew of Burning Steamer
Vancouver.—The Japanese schooner Koun Maru with a cargo of salt from Japan to Port Alberni, B.C., is reported to have been aground and to have foundered 200 miles off Cape Flattery. The crew of five men were rescued by the steamer Toman Maru bound from Tacoma to Japan.

Sweepstakes Captured By Grain Grown From Saskatchewan Samples

Portuguese Threatened By Bolshevism

Spreading Through Large Towns and Conditions Are Serious

London.—The powers are considering intervention in Portugal and the assumption of a mandate there to quell the "ugly wave of Bolshevism" which is sweeping that country, the Times declares. France, Italy and Spain, it says, favor such a move. Former upheavals in Portugal arose from the rivalry of political parties, but Bolshevism is now spreading through the large towns, the Times declares, and there have been many outrages, especially in the Province of Alentejo.

The recent bombing of the United States consulate in Lisbon was an incident in this movement, it is said, and most of the foreign diplomats there have received letters threatening their lives.

When a number of foreign warships moored in the Tagus River at Lisbon recently, the sailors on a Portuguese gunboat are said to have been rebuffed only with difficulty from attempting to torpedo the Spanish vessel.

Despatches to the Times assert that the condition of the country is such that it has been very difficult to find men willing to accept posts in the cabinet.

Teacher Fined For Flogging Scholar

Boy Was Excessively Punished For Telling Untruth

Hamilton, Ont.—Because Miss F. Culbert, a school teacher, strapped Sydney Paulding, a pupil in her class, she was fined $10 and costs in police court. The magistrate said that the punishment administered was "a barbarous way of assaulting a boy and never should be used."

"One or two strokes would have been sufficient," declared the magistrate, "and I find that the boy has been excessively punished."

The boy testified that the teacher struck him 15 times for telling an untruth.

Flagship to Visit B.C.

Ottawa.—Vice-Admiral Sir William O. Pakenham, commander-in-chief of the North American and West India station, will visit British Columbia in his flagship, the Raleigh. The ship will be in Esquimalt from December 16 to December 27, and in Vancouver from December 27 to January 9.

Australia Injured By German Steel Imports

London.—Sydney Dooley, premier of New South Wales, says a Reuter cable from Sydney, Australia, attributes the closing down of portions of the Newcastle Steel Works, with the dismissal of several hundred men, to the action of the Commonwealth Government in allowing unrestricted inflow of camouflaged German steel, which he says, is crippling Australian industry.

Chicago.—Canadian honors did not suffer in the judging arena at the International Livestock Exposition when the Clydesdales were exhibited, but the Bombislon lost a coveted championship in the grain and hay show when the wheat sweepstakes went to a Montana farmer after the crown of champion wheat grower has rested on the head of J. C. Mitchell, of Dakota, a well-known Saskatchewan grain grower, for two years.

Woe Done, a Clydesdale stallion of over seven years of age, exhibited by C. A. Weaver, of Regina, won the stallion championship, and First Principal, entered by the Manitoba Department of Agriculture, was the reserve senior champion. The two Canadian horses were in perfect condition for the fight in the arena, and had little trouble in beating the other senior stallions for the honors. Several firsts and many other prizes were conferred upon Canadian horses in the various classes during the day.

Canada's only comfort in the loss of the wheat growing championship to George Probert, of Bowman, Mont., is that Mr. Kraft's wheat was grown from samples secured from Dr. Seager Wheeler, of Saskatchewan, the Canadian wheat wizard, and Dr. Wheeler is certain to share in the honor of producing such a marvellous brand of improved Marquis. Mr. Mitchell's wheat weighed 64.7 pounds to the bushel, while Kraft's wheat was but 62.6 pounds, but Mitchell's was duller in color and the kernels smaller. Mr. Mitchell was the champion in 1919 and 1920, and was given the secondary honors this year.

Spanish Police Dismissed

Were Doing Nothing to Suppress Gambling in Clubs

Barcelona.—The police officials are adopting stern measures to suppress gambling in clubs and other centres in Barcelona.

Chief Inspector Fernandez Lima made a surprise visit to clubs to investigate whether the police orders were being carried out. He found that games of chance were not being interrupted and immediately dismissed about a dozen police inspectors and captains.

His action has created consternation among other members of the force who are alleged to have participated in the profits derived from the games.

High School Students Killed

Dense Fog Prevented Bus Driver From Seeing Train

Red Bluff, Calif.—Ten high school students were killed south of here at the Santa Fe crossing when the Southern Pacific train No. 15, southbound, struck the high school automobile bus in which they were riding. Four children and the driver were injured.

A bus, en route with children to school, had suffered an accident and was behind schedule. Two drivers were sent from the school to bring it in. Another bus crossed ahead of the train, but this one, following closely behind in a dense fog, was struck squarely and hurled into a block signal. Enclosed in the car, the children were unable to escape and their bodies were hurled in all directions.

Victim of Bandit Dies From Injuries

Wounds Inflicted On Druggist's Assistant Prove Fatal

Winnipeg.—Abbe Davis, aged 19, druggist's assistant, died of wounds inflicted by an unknown bandit who entered the drug store at the corner of Notre Dame and Gertie streets a week ago shooting promiscuously and stealing about $40. Davis was shot in the stomach. Joseph Wilder, the manager of the store, is still in hospital. No trace of the bandit has been found.

Admiral Beatty Sails For Home

New York.—Admiral Beatty sailed for home on the steamer Adriatic after six weeks of a happy, hectic time in the United States and Canada. The hero of Jutland crossed in mufti, said he was coming to this continent again "just as soon as I jolly well can."

Four Aviators Killed in Crash
Lawton, Okla.—Four army aviators, two officers and two privates, were killed when the two airplanes in which they were performing combat duty drills, collided at an altitude of 5,000 feet and crashed to earth near the Post Field, Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

The most amusing feature of the political campaign in this district was the fact that S. Bacon, Hillcrest lawyer-preacher, and J. McArdle, lawyer, both of Calgary, and L. H. Putnam, lawyer, of Blairmore, occupied Graham's amusement room at Coleman and were obliged to talk to themselves while Mr. Gillis was enjoying a roasting meeting at the Eagles' hall in the same town. Talking to yourself while asleep is a common hobby with some people, but talking to yourself at what was supposed to be a meeting of Canadian citizens interested in politics takes the cake.

Monday next promises a little interest in civil elections, when seven candidates will contest the three vacancies on the Council. As far as we can learn, the same low tactics are being adopted by a certain clique in town, who really have more interest in themselves than in the town at large. And we would here again repeat our advice of last year to those who may be victimized with advice on who to vote for. Take it as a gross insult on your intelligence if any man attempts to use you, for it is a frank admission of his opinion that you have no intelligence of your own to exercise. Figure for yourself which of the candidates are in a position to serve you best, and do not overlook the record of those who have been tried and proved true and are deserving of your continued confidence.
